Is Proud to Present...

Rob Mathes and Friends

Rob Mathes is an arranger/composer, producer and songwriter best known for his work as a musical problem solver. He has been writing his own little brand of blues drenched spiritual Pop for years and yet has increasingly become known in the industry for other things.

Rob has an arrangement on the Grammy Winning "Genius Loves Company" by Ray Charles and is the musical director each year for The Kennedy Center Honors.

His Christmas Concerts, given just a few days before the 25th of December each year have spawned 2 PBS specials and garnered the appreciation of a wide audience.

*This concert at FUMC
